Hiring Director:

Are you searching for the right talent that won't cost you an "arm and a leg"?

- 4 seasons of on-air production of audio/video content
- Hosting a spiritual show with multiple characters.
- A solid voice with potential commanding tones
- An aged appearance with authenticity

If so, look no further, I can be that person. Although my on-screen portfolio is still small, I offer an authenticity and genuine approach to everything I engage in. As this is my passion, I maintain a "day job" that keeps my lights on, so I can approach each project I engage in with every part of my being.

I can play a range of characters and possess a manipulatable baritone voice that includes the use of forward projection, making my lines rise above the din in any scene offered.

I do have my own film and sound studio in my home and I'm well versed in using green-screen technologies to produce the right atmospheres.

Please, don't hesitate to give me a try, as I am not looking for maximum pay, I am just interested in broadening my exposure.

Sincerely,

Mark Weisman
